

Logo sums up CATS scheme

A 19-YEAR-OLD Woodend resident, Kimna, has been announced as the winner of the Community Access and Transition Services logo competition.

CATS, a service for young people with disabilities, ran the competition in June and July, inviting Ipswich people aged 15 to 21 years to design a logo or slogan for the organisation.

Co-ordinator Katrina Baker said Kimna's entry was chosen because it "summed up what CATS is about."

Kimna, a volunteer screenprinter at Gaff Gear won a $200 voucher at a store of her choice.

The slogan winner was 15-year-old Karen Upton from Rosewood State High School for her entry of "CATS: Towards a Brighter and More Dignified Lifestyle". Karen won a $50 voucher at a store of her choice.

The winning logo and slogan will now appear on CATS stationery, brochures and business cards.

Ms Baker said CATS helped both physically and intellectually disabled youth to acquire skills such as travel training, money recognition and social interaction.

Inquiries about CATS can be directed to Katrina Baker on 812 0277.

● Katrina Baker congratulates Kimna on her CATS logo competition win.

ADVERTISER

19/10/94

Logo sums up CATS scheme

A 19-YEAR-OLD Woodend resident, Kimna, has been announced as the winner of the Community Access and Transition Services logo competition.

CATS, a service for young people with disabilities, ran the competition in June and July, inviting Ipswich people aged 15 to 21 years to design a logo or slogan for the organisation.

Co-ordinator Katrina Baker said Kimna's entry was chosen because it "summed up what CATS is about."

Kimna, a volunteer screenprinter at Gaff Gear won a $200 voucher at a store of her choice.

The slogan winner was 15-year-old Karen Upton from Rosewood State High School for her entry of "CATS: Towards a Brighter and More Dignified Lifestyle". Karen won a $50 voucher at a store of her choice.

The winning logo and slogan will now appear on CATS stationery, brochures and business cards.

Ms Baker said CATS helped both physically and intellectually disabled youth to acquire skills such as travel training, money recognition and social interaction.

Inquiries about CATS can be directed to Katrina Baker on 812 0277.

● Katrina Baker congratulates Kimna on her CATS logo competition win.

ADVERTISER

19/10/94